

The NOLA Project theatre company seeks performers 18+ of all ethnicities and backgrounds for its 22nd Season. The five-show slate runs October-June and features original comedy, dark satire, Shakespearean tragedy, and more. Comedic, dramatic, and verse monologues welcome. Callbacks by appointment. All roles paid.

The NOLA Project is an ensemble theatre company that challenges, entertains, and engages diverse New Orleans audiences through adventurous productions of classic works, the development of innovative new plays, and practical education opportunities.