

The Tennessee Williams Theatre Company of New Orleans is preparing to announce its 2027 season and will be seeking the following criteria at the combined auditions:

- Local performers representing diverse communities.
To us, this could mean any of the following, and more...
 - LGBTQ+ performers
 - Performers of all abilities
 - Performers of all races and ethnicities
 - Performers of all age ranges 18 and over
 - Performers from groups sometimes overlooked or underrepresented in the presentation of classic plays
- New Faces—we look forward to meeting performers with whom we haven't yet worked.
- Strong dramatic and comedic ability.
- Performers with collaborative spirits who bring professionalism and positivity into the rehearsal space.
- Performers with nighttime availability on weekdays for rehearsals, and occasional weekend availability.
- Performers without a prohibitive number conflicts during the months of performance and rehearsals—typically Feb/March, July/August, & August/September.

We ask that performers not attempt a typical “Tennessee Williams Southern” affectation when auditioning for our productions.

We look forward to seeing our local performers!
